

Royal & SunAlliance launches SuperCover plus

The oldest insurance company around the world recently launched SuperCover plus, the latest insurance product in a unique form at the Renaissance Plaza. Wellknown local comedian Mrs. Tica Basha Bow, did a phenomenal presentation illustrating the contents of the product. Those present were very impressed by the benefits of this product.

SuperCover plus is the only all risk insurance available on the market for both your house and contents. It is a very extensive coverage and even includes accidental damage to your property!

When insuring your Home or Personal Belonging, automatically you are entitled to Legal liability insurance up to Awg. 1,000,000 plus Personal Accident plus Travel Cancellation Free of Charge!

Among those present were the directors of the company, select insurance brokers and staff of Royal & SunAlliance Insurance Aruba.

Royal & SunAlliance provides service to its many clients and brokers in Aruba, through their office located in the Arulex Center. An enthusiastic staff offer a variety of products to commercial and private customers, providing a pleasant and efficient experience service.

The company forms part of a global organization with headquarters based in London, where insurance began centuries ago. Royal & SunAlliance has unparalleled experience in all kinds of property insurance, and provides extensive cover for households, shops and offices. They also offer protection for boats, cars, marine cargo and many other products.